

Job Title: Media Production Intern

Location: Kigali, Rwanda

Role Overview:

We are seeking a passionate and creative Media Production Intern with a keen eye for writing and producing compelling content. This is an exciting opportunity to work on impactful media projects, develop your storytelling skills, and gain hands-on experience in content creation and production.

Key Responsibilities:

- Write engaging scripts, articles, and content for multimedia projects.
- Assist in planning and producing video, audio, and digital media projects.
- Collaborate with the production team on pre-production tasks, including research, storyboarding, and scheduling.
- Support on-set production activities, such as filming, audio recording, and directing talent.
- Edit and refine media content to meet high-quality standards and project goals.
- Brainstorm creative concepts and ideas for upcoming projects.
- Manage and organize media files, ensuring proper documentation and storage.

Qualifications:

- Completed a degree in Media Production, Journalism, Communications, or a related field.
- Strong writing skills with a flair for storytelling.
- Basic knowledge of video production and editing tools (e.g., Adobe Premiere Pro, Final Cut Pro, or similar).
- Excellent attention to detail and creative problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively in a team environment and independently when needed.
- Passion for media production and an interest in creating meaningful content.
